IT'S NOT YOUR HEART IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. A majority of the ills afflicting people today can be traced back to kidney trouble.

The kidneys are the most important organs of the body. They are the filters, the purifiers, of your blood. Kidney disease is usually indicated by weariness, sleeplessness, nervousness, giddiness, backache, stomach trouble, pain in loins and lower abdomen, gravel, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago.

All these derangements are nature's signals to warn you that the kidneys need help. You should use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately.

The soothing, healing oil stimulates the kidneys, relieves inflammation and destroys the germs which have caused it. Do not wait until tomorrow. Go to your druggist today and insist on GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules.

After you feel health and vigor returning and will bless the day you first heard of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil. After you feel that you have cured yourself, continue to take one or two capsules each day, so as to keep in first-class condition and ward off the danger of other attacks.

Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. Three sizes. Money refunded if they do not help you.

School Notes
The second week of high school opened with a registration of forty pupils.

It was decided at a meeting of the editors of the Eureka, in this year instead of two as originally planned. The paper will be much larger than formerly and will contain several cuts and much new material. The editors for the present year are:

Editor-in-Chief—Eleanor Jordan.
Assistant Editor—Stanley Bartlett.
Annual Editor—Leona Terrill.
Local Editor—Annie Gross.
Girls' Athletics—Thelma Farnum.
Boys' Athletics—Rachael Hathaway.
Business Manager—Mansfield Packard.
Exchange Editor—Cassie Latham.
Furnish Editor—Marguerite Dudley.
Societies Editor—Ida Powers.
Junior Editor—Charles E. Noyes.
Senior Editor—Homer Barnum.

There were no sessions of the village schools Friday because of the storm.

In order to make up the time lost during the epidemic of influenza the school day has been lengthened in the High school. There are two sessions instead of one.

An innovation is to be tried in the high school building this week. Hot coffee or coffee will be on sale to those pupils who eat their lunch there. It is thought that the cost will not be over two or three cents per cup. About forty-five pupils remain in the building during the noon hour.

The high school basketball team went to Andover Saturday, where they played Andover High. Prin. Crooker, Lloyd Hathaway, Raeburn Hathaway, Homer Farnum, Carleton Lapham, Edwin Perham, Charles Noyes and Roydon Billings made up the party. The teams were evenly matched and the game was fast and clean throughout. Small and Bernard excelled for Andover, while the defensive play of Lapham kept the Andover score low. The score:

Norway Grange

All roads led to Norway Grange Hall on Saturday, Jan. 25, and by 11 a. m. quite a few had gathered, the number being largely augmented by noon. A social hour was enjoyed after which a dinner, a real feast, was served by the defeated candidates and their aids to the large assembly of patrons. The line of march to the dining room to music furnished by A. M. Dunham violin and Dennis Pike drum, was headed by Judge Louis Gammon and Judge A. E. Morse, followed by Worthy Master W. O. Perry and wife, Leon Brooks and wife and the winners decorated with tiny flags given by Capt. Ella Perry. The judges were two flags as an especial mark of distinction. Bro. A. E. Morse and Bro. Leon Brooks and wife were guests of honor from Paris Grange. The Blessing was invoked by Bro. A. E. Morse of Paris Grange.

At 1:30 p. m. Worthy Master W. O. Perry called to order. A business session was held including reports from special and standing committees.
The drawing for the grange quilt was conducted by Sister Mary Perry with the box held high above her head. Sister Lizzie Millett drew the ship which awarded the quilt to Sister Rosa Millett (Mrs. B. D. Millett).
A communication was read by Worthy Secretary G. W. Richardson from C. O. Furinton, Worthy State Lecturer, notifying that the Lecturers' Conference would be held in Auburn on March 5 and 6. Norway Grange will send their lecturer to the conference.
Installation of officers was then taken up. Bro. Leon Brooks of Paris Grange and assistants, Ruth Holgate and Elton L. Brown gave a most excellent exemplification of the work. Preceding the ceremony, the choir sang America. At the close, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." The following officers were inducted into their several offices:
Master—W. S. G. Abbott.
Overseer—Asa Frost.
Lecturer—Annie S. Goodwin.
Assistant Lecturer—William Brown.
Captain—Grace Bennett.
Secretary—Ella Perry.
Gate Keeper—A. T. Crocker.
Clerk—Viola Abbott.
Flora—Edith Knightly.
Sisters Fannie Richardson, Pomona, Minnie Upton, L. A. Steward, and Bro. Percy Upton, Steward, were unable to be present and will be installed at a later date.

Remarks for the good of the order were made by Worthy Master Abbott, G. W. Richardson, Miss Cox, and others. The sick members reported as somewhat improved. Minutes read and approved. The meeting closed in form. Norway Grange is to give the Red Cross the use of the hall on Wednesday evening, Jan. 29.
Observed Ninetieth Birthday
Mrs. Clara A. Hayden who is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Ryerson, at Manchester-by-the-Sea, Mass., observed her ninetieth birthday on Saturday, Jan. 25th. It is the custom of the Hayden family to hold a real family reunion on grandma Hayden's birthday wherever she happens to be, stopping on that day and this year was no exception at the Knightly mansion by the sea. As usual the sons, daughters, and grandchildren united in celebrating the event and the following poem entitled "Her Birthday," written by Mrs. Alma P. Hayden, was read by Frank P. Knight at the banquet.
Last year I asked a young lady
If she was eighty-nine,
I felt as if I had stumbled,
She was looking so young and fine.
Again she's the belle of the party,
Her children from far and near,
Come to celebrate her birthday,
And the joy of another year.
She's gathered a lot out of living,
The best as she journeyed along,
Her hands always ready for giving,
Her heart attuned to a song.
If you want to live to be ninety,
Her counsel from far and near,
Come to celebrate her birthday,
And the joy of another year.
Oh, she's a little thing to do,
She can tell you the right thing to do,
And if you thought you knew better,
Her counsel is always come true;
So here's to a faithful mother,
The best grandmother ever seen,
May health and happiness be hers,
In the year 1919!

G. Ralph Harriman is spending the week in Boston attending the meetings of the Rexall Club.
Millettville
The Community Vesper Service was held with Mrs. Foster Jackson, Sunday. The beautiful day brought out a goodly number there being 34 in all present. Mrs. S. I. Jackson was at the organ and some very pretty new hymns were tried as well as the old favorites. Fred Noble's tenor was a fine addition to the chorus. Every family nearby was represented and much good enjoyment comes through these services. The next service will be at Mrs. Fred Noble's.
The Sewing Club met with Mrs. Harry Millett on Thursday of last week and there was a great deal of excitement over the putting together of the "little pants" for the refugee boys. But after some time there were six pairs well underway and five of them finished and turned in to Mrs. Jas. F. Favor. The next meeting is with Mrs. C. G. Witham and the work is looked forward to with pleasure.

The A. P. Farum party, who attended the Pio Social at Fred Henry's Saturday evening made some hit, we understand. Co. for they were hailed as negro minstrels at first but it proved more serious than that. Mrs. Farum is out a new dress after an absence of three weeks due to after a few more cleanings! The cause was cold feet and a smoky lantern. We all know what lamp black is and they have our sympathy.
We've been having beautiful winter weather, but nevertheless a week ago Sunday evening someone burned up about 2 cords of pulp wood and two good axes on the shore of North Pond belonging to R. and S. I. Jackson, trying to keep warm. It is assumed, it was Millettville and Crockett Ridge made a good showing Saturday at Grange Hall when all Mrs. Farum and Mrs. Dinsmore were cheerful losers. The two mentioned were cheerful too, but on the winning side.

Twenty-Four Years Ago This Week

About $870 has been subscribed toward the cost of a town clock for the Norway Opera House tower. Donations vary from $50 to $25.00.

The Norway Lake correspondent gives an interesting price comparison. This year 1895 we buy flour for $3.55, shortly after the Civil War it brought $12 to $13 per barrel. Now $1.00 will procure 22 pounds sugar, then 5 pounds was the limit. Tea now cost 50¢, then we paid down $1.40 for a pound. Raisins were 25 cents per pound, now 5 cents. Cotton cloth when obtainable brought 25 to 75 cts., per yard.

Again the story has been sent to out of town papers for publication that our former townsman, J. W. Swan the photographer, has been found, this time in Mexico. As near as we can find out about this report is that James Smith said that his son, C. R. Smith who is a photographer and learned his trade of J. W. Swan, said that recently when he was in Boston he met a man who knew them both. The man told him that he knew Mr. Swan to be alive and in Mexico.

CIVIL WAR TIME ECHOES

Camp in Reserve before Petersburg, Va., Oct. 22, 1864.

It is cloudy and chilly and my hands are a little numb; my health is first rate and am getting along very comfortably.

We have got a little more out of the reach of bullets and there is not much danger of getting hit here.

Col. West came back last week and took command of the regiment and then we were relieved of the front line and are now living about a mile and a half back of it. Nice place to camp, good water and plenty of it. Can't say how long we'll stay here but probably not very long. There has been no general movement made since the first of the month, then we went to the left to within two miles of the front line.

There were 5 days and got back onto the old line of work again and staid there until the 14th and then came back here.

The front line isn't a very pleasant place to live in and it grows worse every day. I felt relieved when I got back out of it.

They have got to using mortars to throw shell with and they are a very saving thing to hit a fellow on the head.

The rebels had some 10 inch mortars front of us and would send some of those shell over occasionally. They send them up in the air about 300 feet and calculate to have them burst just before or when they hit the ground. I tell you it makes a fellow think of home mighty quick.

Have one of them come down and burst near him. They don't go very quick so one has a little time to get out of the way. I have run for them a good many times.

In the day time you can't see them very often but can hear them by the burning fuse and in the night can see them by the burning fuse. We can get on pretty well if they don't come too fast but when they throw 10 or 15 at a time as they sometimes do it is pretty snug work to dodge them.

Well there has none of them hit me yet and I hope they won't. It is fun to see them go and make the dirt fly when they come down and hit the ground before they burst. They will go in the ground about 3 feet and then explode and make the dirt fly and a hole big enough to put a cart load of pumpkins in. I guess I've bothered you enough with these dangerous things. I'm comparatively out of the line and shall probably be most of the time as long as the war lasts.

Bro. Moses [Moses A. Brown of Mass., Ohio] is at City Point, Va. I have not seen him since he came back the last time. I am to try and go down there to see him if he comes up here to see me. I can't tell much about the operation of the Army here but they are busy at work night and day. Gen. Sheridan, I hear, has got another victory in the Valley but have no particulars. Expect another story will be made for the south side of the Danville railroad. We are expecting and looking for it. Gen. Birney died this week of fever.

I'm sending the children some peach-stone trinkets where I have whittled out with my knife the girl can put them with her baby things. I may send more if I stay here long enough and I guess I'll be here 10 months more all right—until my enlistment expires. No doubt Lincoln is to be re-elected and the war will continue on until the rebels are conquered anyhow and I don't know but they have men and means enough to hold on four years longer. They seem to hold out pretty well although our army is getting a little closer on them. We may yet have Richmond but that won't close the war unless we can get Lee's Army too.

Wife's Letter From Home
Norway Oct. 9, 1864. It is Sunday night, clear and beautiful, and rather cold with Northern Lights. Julian and I have got the wash water. Monday is wash day with me. Julian has not been much help to me this last week.

The Cattle Show last Tuesday. Wednesday morning he got up before I did and went over there before I got up. I went over at 11 o'clock and almost the first one I saw was Julian who wanted some money to go somewhere to eat. That was all I saw of him till dark.

The last morning he was a little more national and didn't get up until after breakfast and then went with Kinsman and staid all day. I thought it was no use to try and have him go to school while Cattle Show was on and then there was no school Wednesday or Thursday.

Lucella got 25 cents premium on the wreath, 10 cents a piece on 2 tidies and I got half dollar on my carpet. They don't pay as big premium as they used to. They hung my carpet over there and it looked rough and homely. Everybody said it was the prettiest rag carpet they ever saw. Well it won't get worn out in a few months—a little over 10 more months, Hurray! Hurray! The boys and girls will shout and all the ladies turn out when you and Gran come marching home. I hope and pray our lives may be spared to see that happy day.

P. S. I'm awful glad you got the stockings and that they fit and I hope the shirts I've sent will too.
